

Why write a Christian will?

Most people know they need to make a will for the sake of their families for when God decides to take them home to heaven. Did you know that only one out of every three people has a will that reflects their values? Consider how you want to provide for yourself, your loved ones, and Christ's work through your plans.

Our church is hosting a presentation on writing a Christian will led by one of our district's WELS Christian giving counselors. Come and learn how your plans can reflect what's in your heart. You will also have the opportunity to schedule a private consultation with the giving counselor for free assistance with planning your will.

WELS Christian giving counselors are called workers who apply Scriptural principles to the gift planning process. Since their services are funded by our church body, there is no cost to you or the congregation. And your local WELS Christian giving counselor is available to provide you with further help as you consider revising your plans.

"If something happened to me or my husband we wanted to have a safe place for our children to go. It's just peace of mind. We're parents now, so if we're going to plan for their eternal future why wouldn't we put all these things in order?" – Megan Beyer

Why write a Christian will?

Most people know they need to make a will for the sake of their families for when God decides to take them home to heaven. Did you know that only one out of every three people has a will that reflects their values? Consider how you want to provide for yourself, your loved ones, and Christ's work through your plans.

Our church is hosting a presentation on writing a Christian will led by one of our district's WELS Christian giving counselors. Come and learn how your plans can reflect what's in your heart. You will also have the opportunity to schedule a private consultation with the giving counselor for free assistance with planning your will.

WELS Christian giving counselors are called workers who apply Scriptural principles to the gift planning process. Since their services are funded by our church body, there is no cost to you or the congregation. And your local WELS Christian giving counselor is available to provide you with further help as you consider revising your plans.

"If something happened to me or my husband we wanted to have a safe place for our children to go. It's just peace of mind. We're parents now, so if we're going to plan for their eternal future why wouldn't we put all these things in order?" – Megan Beyer

Find answers to questions like these:

- What does God's Word tell us about faithful use of his blessings?
- Why is it so important for a Christian to have a will? What is a Christian preamble?
- Who will take care of things when I die?
- Do I need a will if I have a living trust?
- Does a single person need a will?
- If both parents die, what happens to the minor children?
- How can I provide for my family? How much should I leave my children? How much is too much?
- How can I make a gift through my will to my Lord for his gospel work?
- Can I reduce the costs of probate and taxes through my plan?
- Where do I begin? How much time will it take? How much will it cost?

See the church bulletin for details regarding this special presentation. Please plan to attend!

Christian giving counselors provide general gift planning information. For assistance in planning charitable gifts with tax and other implications, the services of appropriate and qualified advisors should be obtained.

Christian estate planning insert #1

Find answers to questions like these:

- What does God's Word tell us about faithful use of his blessings?
- Why is it so important for a Christian to have a will? What is a Christian preamble?
- Who will take care of things when I die?
- Do I need a will if I have a living trust?
- Does a single person need a will?
- If both parents die, what happens to the minor children?
- How can I provide for my family? How much should I leave my children? How much is too much?
- How can I make a gift through my will to my Lord for his gospel work?
- Can I reduce the costs of probate and taxes through my plan?
- Where do I begin? How much time will it take? How much will it cost?

See the church bulletin for details regarding this special presentation. Please plan to attend!

Christian giving counselors provide general gift planning information. For assistance in planning charitable gifts with tax and other implications, the services of appropriate and qualified advisors should be obtained.

Christian estate planning insert #1

MINISTRY OF CHRISTIAN GIVING
wels.net/givingcounselors | 800-827-5482

MINISTRY OF CHRISTIAN GIVING
wels.net/givingcounselors | 800-827-5482