

Did you miss our presentation on writing a Christian will?

Recently we learned ...

- how a will can reflect our Christian faith,
- why we all need a coordinated plan,
- when to review or revise a will,
- the benefits of a life income arrangement, and more!

“It has been a pleasure and quite straightforward working with our Christian giving counselor. Not only is the money being well used to further our synod’s work (when we go to heaven, numerous WELS entities of our choice will be receiving donations), but we have helped our own retirement plan.” – Marlin and Sharon Braun

Last week our congregation hosted a presentation on writing a Christian will. If you were unable to attend, there is still an opportunity for you to learn about this important topic and how it affects you and your family.

Please fill out the form below and mail it to WELS Ministry of Christian Giving. A WELS Christian giving counselor will contact you to provide free assistance with drawing up your plans. WELS Christian giving counselors are called workers who apply Scriptural principles to the gift planning process. Since their services are funded by our church body, there is no cost to you or the congregation. And your local WELS Christian giving counselor is available to provide you with further help as you consider updating your plans in the future.
